THE ENCYCLOPEDIA BRITTANICA

A-NINTH EDITION.—Edited by Thomas Specer Bayness. Li.D. To be completed in 21 4-to volumes, of from 500 to 00 pages. Price of volumes, so, in cioth. In the reissae of the Encyclopandia Britannica, the work is made in all respects superior to all previous editions—from the first edition, 3 volumes quarto, 171, down to the eighth edition, 5 volumes quarto, 171, down to the eighth edition, 5 volumes quarto, 171, down to the eighth edition, 8 volumes quarto, 171, down to the eighth edition, 8 volumes quarto, 171, down to the eighth edition, a volumes of steeper of the contract of the surface of all English works of its kind and those of any previous editions; corrected and rewriter; printed from type especially prepared for the work, and in all typographical particulars will represent the highest skill of bookbinding. A complete book of reference, adapted to the requirements of the age, representing the ripest learning in art, literature, philosophy and seience, constituting a compendium of accurate and useful knowledge, sufficient substitute for any library of ordinary size. Engravings and wood-ents profusely litustrate the text. It is unaccessary to add, the main duty of the compiler is to give an accurate account of the facts, and an impartial summary of the results in evry department of inquiry and research. In this the Encyclopacial Britannica ure-eminently excels. Its comparative cheapness being considered, its value is more desirable to the average literary man than a miscelianeous collection of a thousand volumes. The work will be issued at the rate of three volumes annually. Vol. I—A to Ana—now ready for delivery. Information give and subscriptions received by W. H. & O. H. Morrison, Law Publishers and Booksellers, 63 Pennsylvania vecanics.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

Monetary. Washington, Monday Evening. Gold is unchanged and quiet at 114%. Money easy at 8@10. Governments dull and changeable. Quotations based upon the transactions of this market, furnished by bankers, 1429 F street; by Mesers. Sherman & Uo.,

There is nothing startling to report in connection with the stock market. Congress-guaranteed 2-65's are dull and 1/2 lower, at 70@701/2, which is probably explainable in the fact that there are very lew orders in town, all that have been on hand and awaiting the lowering of rates having been filled Saturday night. The market "on the street" opened with offerings instead of bids this Green N's are active at 9014/891. Water cartifi.

cates and 18-year bonds are active, respectively, at 92% and 86%, with an upward tendency. There are very few of these good-paying bonds in the Our regular New York night dispatch, giving the condition of the market at the close of busithe condition of the market at the close of business, says:
